THE LEAGUE A CERTAINTY

Representatives of Six Central Kentucky Towns Meet Here and Thresh Out Plans

CONCESSION MADE LEXINGTON

Delegates from six towns of Central Kentucky which will have clubs in the newly-organized Blue Grass League, met in this city Tuesday night, and went over a number of points in dispute, which had been "delaying the game," to use a trite expression. The towns represented were Mt. Sterling, Paris, Lexington, Cynthiana, Maysville and Winchester. After a lengthy discussion and consideration of the points at issue an understanding was reached that will bring about union in the ranks.

The delegates expressed the opinion after the meeting that the League is now a certainty for the coming season, and that the work of putting the teams into the game will soon begin. Each delegate brought a favorable report from his town.

Games will be played on Thursdays and Sundays, according to the decision reached at the meeting Tuesday night. Adoption of the official schedule and some matters of minor importance will be considered at a meeting of the League promoters at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, at the Phoenix Hotel, in Lexington.

Thomas Russell, of Maysville, well-known sport promoter and all-round good fellow, and president of the old Blue Grass League, presided at the Tuesday meeting. In the absence of Secretary Vreeland, of Winchester, J. C. Owens, of Paris, was elected secretary pro tem.

The new League will operate under the atonal agreement of organized baseball. An agreement was reached by which games will be played in Lexington, the largest city on the circuit, nearly every Sunday. The Lexington club will play Sunday games in Paris.

E. F. CANTRILL HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

The handsome two-story frame residence of E. F. Cantrill, on Winchester street, was badly damaged by fire of unknown origin, Tuesday night. The fire, which was said to have originated in the attic of the house, did damage estimated at about $15,000. In the fire Mr. Cantrill lost a large part of his furniture and household effects, including a lot of antique furniture and valuable heirlooms. The damage was placed at about $15,000, with insurance of $5,000 on the house, and $300 on the furniture. Mr. Cantrill estimated the loss on the residence damaged by fire and water as $10,000 on the building and $4,000 on the contents.

The Paris fire department was summoned by an alarm from Box 26, and did splendid work, but were considerably handicapped at the start by inability to reach the fire with water from their hose. The residence was one of the handsomest in the county in its day, and was built in 1847 by Levi Link, father of Mrs. Cantrill. It was constructed entirely of hand-hewn logs, and afterward weatherboarded. It has been in the possession of the family continuously since its erection. Years ago it was the scene of many enjoyable social events, and was noted far and wide for the hospitality dispensed within its walls.

"SENSIBLE CENSORSHIP" OF FILMS IS FAVORED

John B. Elliott, president and general manager of the Phoenix Amusement Company, which controls and operates the Alamo Theatre and Grand Opera House, in Paris, has gone on record as being in favor of "sensible censorship" of moving pictures, despite the fact that it will cost his company more than a $100 a day. In a letter more than $100 a day. In a letter to Dr. Thomas Holloway, Mr. Elliott says:

"In reply to your request, will state that I am in favor of sensible censorship of moving pictures. In making this statement, I know that I will invite the criticism of brother exhibitors, but, under existing conditions, I think that I can defend my position. A State board of censorship will cost us over $100 a day. Yet I am in favor of it if they get the right kinds of minds on the board."

Mr. Elliott says that it has always been the policy of his company to give the public clean pictures and vaudeville, and that preachers and priests are invited at all times to view the pictures and that any part they think should not be shown will gladly be cut out.

"Let us hope that the Kentucky board of censorship will work for the good of the State and not be a joke, as most State boards have been," Mr. Elliott said.

DR. I. J. SPENCER DIES IN ILLINOIS HOSPITAL

A message yesterday morning from Peoria, Illinois, to Mrs. Wm. B. Ardery, of Paris, told of the death in the Methodist Hospital, in Peoria, of her father, Rev. Dr. I. J. Spencer, former pastor of the Central Christian church, in Lexington, and one of the most popular ministers of the State. Dr. Spencer died at 11:45 Wednesday night. Mrs. Spencer, and a daughter, Miss Eva Spencer, trained nurse, who resides in Columbia, Mo., were with him to the end.

Since January 8 Dr. Spencer had been supplying the pulpit in the church of the Eureka College, Eureka, Illinois, under the management of the Disciples of Christ, while (the pastor, Dr. J. M. Phipps, was in Florida. When Dr. Spencer became ill with an attack of gall stones he was taken to the Peoria hospital, where it was found he was too weak to undergo an operation. Mrs. Spencer and her daughter were summoned to his bedside three days after the attack, and have been there since. Another daughter, Mrs. Wm. B. Ardery, of Paris, was unable to go because of the illness of her husband and son.

Mrs. Spencer wired that the funeral arrangements will be announced later.

PLANS PERFECTED FOR TRAINING SONG LEADERS

Plans were perfected Wednesday evening at a conference of the Music Committee of Paris Community Service and Mr. Harry Murrison, special representative of the Music Department of Community Service, Inc., of New York, to conduct a class for the training of volunteer song leaders, beginning Monday evening, March 6, in the auditorium of the High School, starting promptly at 7:30.

This class is intended to give practical instruction in all phases of community music, including Sunday School singing, church and congregational singing and massed singing for all sorts of gatherings and will include correct baton movements, the outstanding points of crowd psychology, program building and class and individual demonstrations.

One of the features of this course will be a talk and practical demonstration of the "Requirements of the Accompanist," by Mrs. Murrison, who will assist Mr. Murrison in the conducting of these classes. Special attention will be given to church and Sunday school singing and individual problems of members of the class will be discussed.

This class is open to anyone over the age of 18 who will attend all of the meetings and who will then return to their own organizations as volunteer leaders. At the request of the committee, Mr. Murrison has arranged to give this entire course in three meetings of the class which will take place on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings of next week and they request that all persons contemplating doing the work will arrange to attend all of the three sessions, as each is contingent upon the other.

There will be no fees or dues for this work and it is hoped that all of those persons interested in massed singing in any of its forms will avail themselves of this opportunity and enroll prior to the first meeting.

All persons attending these meetings will be required to do the floor work and no spectators can be admitted.

BOURBON MAN INTERESTED IN CANADA RANCH

Buckner Woodford, of Paris, is interested in a very productive ranch of fifteen thousand acres, in Canada, in which he is associated with a party of Lexington men, John Buckley, B. F. Perry, Jas. Stone and W. B. Corbin. The ranch is being extensively worked and developed by a large force of workers and encouraging reports are being received as to the development.

B. F. Perry, manager of the ranch, has returned from Canada and reports that this year 20,000 bushels of oats and barley were threshed on the place; 2,885 tons of prairie hay baled, and most of which sold at $17 a ton. There is a grain elevator on the ranch of 50,000 bushels capacity and large store houses for hay and other products of the farm in addition to the stock barns and other necessary buildings.

TOBACCO SPECULATORS SUED IN HARRISON COUNTY

J. R. Jones, member of the board of directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association and prominent citizen of Cynthiana, has filed a suit for $10,000 damages against Hez Harris, Joe W. Anold and George Wallingford, well-known speculators in unpeeled tobacco in the loose leaf market there, charging that the defendants sold tobacco in the loose leaf warehouse of the Clarence LeBus & Sons Company in the name of the plaintiff, thereby damaging him in the sum of $10,000.

TEACHING MANNERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOL

We can see no good objection to the movement for teaching manners in the public schools, but it should not be forgotten that manners, like languages, are best acquired unconsciously and through example and practice. There is a sound reason for every social convention which is properly a part of good manners, and where there is no such sound reason for any fashionable course, it is only a fad which dies a natural death when it has had its day.

Books on etiquette might content themselves with the single rule: "Do what is most kindly and sensible and logical, and refrain from what might cause discomfort to others." Eating with the knife is not especially reprehensible in itself, but others may shudder over the cut you may give your lip, or they may become alarmed for fear the knife may slip down your throat, or that you are practicing to become a sword swallower. And drinking from the saucer is apt to be noisy and untidy. Talk should be kindly and considerate.

The proper course in the presence of women or the weak is always the course best calculated to please and protect them. Children could learn manners as they learn to talk, unconsciously. In cases where they have not the benefit of home example the teacher can doubtless do much by insistence upon some good general rule, and more by providing a good example in his or her own person.

Take a peek in some of the Paris restaurants some day or night, if you want to see what we are driving at. See the "sword swallows" at work, and hear the terrible noises some people make in absorbing their food, and you will wonder if they had ever known civilization and good manners.

SALE OF EDIBLES

On account of inclement weather, the Bourbon County Women's Club will have on sale to-day, Friday, March 3, at Mammoth Garage from 9 to 12 a. m., choice pies, baked apples, vienna rolls, barbecued meats, etc., prepared by the best housekeepers of the county. Funds received from this sale will be added to the memorial funds.

FAIR TREATMENT FOR GROWERS

Passonneau Urges Tobacco Men To Accord Fair Treatment To All Others

RIGHTS MUST BE RESPECTED

Urging members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association to endeavor to enlist all their neighbors in the organization for the next five years, but impressing upon them the necessity of full consideration to endeavor to enlist their pursuance of a course that recognizes these rights and will leave no feeling against the association, Colonel Joseph Passonneau, chief of the field service division, gave out a statement to the members of the association, in which he said that the pursuance of such a policy would, in his opinion, result in the signing up of a 100 per cent membership among the burley growers.

Colonel Passonneau said the men who remained out of the association would suffer the disadvantage of lower prices, pointed out that, with one exception, the western cooperatives had succeeded and that this one exception had failed to recognize the rights of others to remain out if they desired to do so.

"Approximately 85 per cent of the growers of burley tobacco have joined the association. These men joined because they believed that the cooperative selling of burley tobacco would be to their own benefit, and consequently would benefit every branch of business in the burley district. The 15 per cent that stayed out in most instances, probably believed that it would pay them better and be of more benefit to the whole business of the State if the tobacco association was not formed. Some believed conscientiously that the manufacturers would buy them better and be of more others doubted the possibility of successful managing of an organization as large as the burley cooperative. But the manufacturers are buying our tobacco and paying us a very good price for it. Efficient and economical management has been instituted, consequently, there can be offered no good objection to the association in the future. We want to make it unanimous."

The Proof Is In Paris, Almost At Your Door

The public statement of a Paris citizen is in itself strong proof for Paris people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Paris citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved weak kidneys and now states the result was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

Mrs. A. L. Burley, 329 Eighth street, Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills a few times and from the benefit obtained I can say they are a good reliable remedy. Whenever my kidneys have acted irregularly or my back had been weak and lame I have always found a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I get at Arder's Drug Store to relieve the complaint quickly."

The above statement was given November 10, 1916, and on November 12, 1920, Mrs. Burley said: "I haven't changed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and recommend them just as highly to-day as when I gave my statement in 1916. The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me at that time has been permanent."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burley had. Foster-Milburn, Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv.)

EDITORIAL FLINGS

The Bell telephone system boasts of having invented a device by which the footfalls of an approaching fly may be heard. But they could render a greater service to humanity and the public in general if they would invent something that would enable the operators to hear their bells when a subscriber tries calling them for thirty minutes.

Robins, bluebirds and blackbirds, said to be harbingers of spring, have made their appearance in Paris. We have known this to happen many times before. We have also heard of farmers being driven out of the fields they were plowing by heavy snowstorms. We hope the return of the birds is a sure sign of the early arrival of spring—but how are we going to get around the ground hog theory?

Monkey in a Muff.
A monkey was used by a clever woman thief to commit a series of thefts from jewelers' shops in Paris. The creature was so tiny that she carried it in a big muff. Then while its mistress was standing at such distance from the counter as disarmed suspicion, the monkey would thrust out a long, spider-like arm and snatch and conceal a ring or brooch. It was a shop detective, hidden in a gallery above and watching with the aid of reflecting mirrors, who at last detected the trick.

FIFTEEN CENT ADVANCE ON TOBACCO CROP

Earl Hardwick, of near Carlisle, holds the record for Nicholas county for advance received on his tobacco. The tobacco is of a new variety and was grown from seed given him last year by the late John T. Collins, of Paris.

Mr. Hardwick delivered to the Burley pool association house at Carlisle 4,065 pounds of tobacco for which he received an advance of fifteen cents per pound. The crop is said to be one of the best delivered in Carlisle this season.

BOURBON POST
AMERICAN LEGION

District schools in Moffat county, Colorado, had decided to close their doors for a period of weeks, due to insufficient funds. The American Legion succeeded in raising $916 to keep them going, taking the stand that "a shortening of the school term or a curtailment of athletics would be a backward step, depriving children of rightful advantages."

Ex-service men in Alabama will vote without paying a poll tax. A State amendment, backed by the American Legion, grants them the exemption.

The Chamber of Commerce, of Pittsburg, Pa., home of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, has voted for the American Legion's adjusted compensation bill. Almost at the same time the Chamber at Los Angeles, Cal., with 9,000 members and called the largest in the United States, endorsed the bonus. Calling the U. S. Chamber's tactics unfair, the local commerce board at El Dorado, Kan., denied its membership and then voted for the compensation measure.

Discharged by a Wall Street banking house for refusing to write letters to Congress attacking adjusted compensation, an ex-service man has turned to the American Legion at New York for help in finding another position. He was one of three out of 250 employees, who refused to sell his pen.

The Legion secured his affidavit stating that typewritten forms were passed out by the firm to all workers with an order that each employee hand in unsealed letters, one to President Harding and three to Congressmen, and the remark that "you fellows had better write these letters to-night if you want to keep your jobs."

CHARGES REPUBLICAN SCHEME TO USE THE MOVIES

Charges that a group of Republicans who expect to be candidates for office next fall have discussed with "several managers of the motion picture industry" plans for "using the big money picture trust to flood the country with propaganda helpful to the Republicans" were made by Representative A. B. Rouse, of Kentucky, chairman of the National Democratic Congressional Committee.

He concluded a formal statement in which he declared campaign plans had been discussed at a luncheon at a Washington hotel, with an assertion that the moving picture industry must "keep out of politics."

"I do not believe the men who own the controlling stock in the motion picture industry will countenance this." Mr. Rouse's statement said. "In the first place they have too much sense to jeopardize the success of their business, and in the second place I believe most of them are Democrats.

"Even the Republican theatrical men know that everything shown on the screen in recent months connected with the present Administration has been unpopular. Every theatregoer comments on this. Before this procedure is allowed to start it would be well for the heads of the business to reflect and to ask themselves whether they can afford to go into politics at this time."

Fashion Knew No Mercy.

In the days when gull wings and breasts were in demand for women's hats and when the law afforded no protection to the feathered tribes, they were slaughtered by thousands all along the coast. Millinery agents from New York would conduct expeditions, accompanied by expert skinners, to the breeding grounds of the seafowl and hire local gunmen to do the killing. One woman in a single season brought back 10,000 tern skins from Cobbs island, Virginia. More than 500,000 tern skins were collected in one season in the sounds of North and South Carolina.

BOURBON EXHIBITORS AT THE LIVESTOCK SHOW

The Shorthorn Congress show and sale, held annually at Chicago, is an event looked forward to by all Southern breeders. This show is second only in importance to the International Livestock Exposition held in Chicago every December, and the breeders value the prizes won at any show during the year. The Congress which has just come to a close, was one of the most interesting ever held and the breeders were highly pleased with the session. A total of 229 head of registered Shorthorn cattle were brought to Chicago for a big show and then were sold at public auction for very satisfactory prices.

Goff and Rice, Shorthorn breeders of Paris, showed five head and received fourth place on their good yearling heifer, Rosemary 44th, by their herd bull, Liberty Stamp 721316. In the sale she sold for $425 to Buckland Hall Farm, of Nokesville, Va.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Tuesday night about one hundred fathers and sons gathered at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for the annual "Father-and-Son Banquet." An interesting program was rendered.

In the early part of the program a series of games was presented by the "sons" who were placed in competition with the "fathers," who were not slow to see that their day had about passed, and they were not as spry as they used to be. Still they managed to win a large number of the events.

Following the athletic stunts a musical program was rendered, with Miss Elise Varden at the piano. Ernest Hartley, new musical director at the Paris Grand, rendered several violin solos. Harry Kerslake rendered several solos, and Harry Morrison, Community Service song leader, led the assembly in a number of patriotic songs. L. F. (Dad) Zerfoss, Boys' Secretary of the Lexington Y. M. C. A., gave a talk on "The Comradeship of Father and Son," after which the guests marched by twos past the kitchen door, where they were served with refreshments. Many mothers of the young sons occupied seats in the balcony, and were intensely interested in the proceedings of the "wise men" on the floor.

FLU WARNING ISSUED

Prevailing weather conditions have served to aggravate the influenza conditions in this city and county, which are at present of a serious nature. The disease is in a mild form, readily yielding to treatment, and in nothing like an epidemic form. Physicians have recommended that on account of the situation in the city and county, visiting between families in which there is illness, be discouraged. They also discourage public gatherings, as far as possible, but as yet the Health Board has not issued an official warning or order forbidding such gatherings.

It is possible nowadays in Paris to get a pretty fair second-hand automobile for the price of a new type-writer but playing upon the keyboard may increase income, while playing with the steering wheel doesn't.

CONFERENCE OF EXECUTIVES HELD HERE TUESDAY

M. Peale Collier, president of the Paris Commercial Club, presided on Tuesday over the sessions of the executives' conference of presidents and secretaries of Central Kentucky commercial organizations, held at Y. M. C. A., at which subjects of vital importance to Paris and other Central Kentucky cities were discussed. The business session and luncheon occupied the time from noon until 2:30 p. m.

Secretary Frank Dunn, of the Lexington Board of Trade, strongly advised co-operation of all the commercial organizations, looking to the improvement of the educational program of the State, in order that Kentucky may rise above the forty-sixth place in point of illiteracy in the Union. Barney J. Tracey, president of the Lexington organization, also spoke in favor of co-operation, and extended an invitation for the next meeting of the directors of the executive conference to be held in Lexington some time in March to include directors of the commercial clubs, as well as the presidents and secretaries. Other speakers on the program were C. M. Jouett and H. Clay Smith, president and secretary of the Cynthiana Chamber of Commerce; P. H. Nunnally, president of the Georgetown Boosters' Club; Jas. M. Caldwell, Rudolph Davis and Harold Harris, secretary of the Paris Commercial Club.

TO RETURN TO FRANCE

Application for a passport to France was made at the office of Deputy District Court Clerk Spencer Finnell, in Lexington, Tuesday by Clarence Buchanan, of Paris. The application was forwarded to Washington for approval by the Department of State.

Mr. Buchanan is a veteran of the world war. While in France he met and wooed a handsome young French girl, who returned to America with him, and made her home in Paris. She died in this city a few months ago, and Mr. Buchanan is making the trip to France to visit relatives and the parents of his bride. He plans to remain in France for several months, and will sail from New York this month, or as soon as the necessary regulations have been complied with.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of extending our heartfelt thanks to all kind friends, and neighbors for their many thoughtful acts of kindness in the last illness and the death of Mr. John Alvin Cassity. Especially do we wish to thank Mr. George R. Davis, the funeral director for his kindly offices. To one and all who gave us their sympathy in our affliction we extend our warmest thanks. May the Great Physician heal their wounds and may friends never be lacking when the last dark day closes over them or their loved ones.

LOST GIRL SOUGHT HERE

Paris and Bourbon county authorities have joined in the search being made for Miss Adelia Ashby, fifteen-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Ashby, of Louisville, who disappeared from her home in that city Tuesday night. The search is being conducted in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

According to information received from Louisville, the girl, who is a student at the Louisville High School, left a note stating that she was going away with an eloping couple and that she might be married herself before she returned. No trace of the young woman has been found here.

SOME BEASTLY WEATHER
Paris, Ky., has borrowed, apparently, some of the "bestly weather" from our English friends. March started in with sleet, which fell in the early hours, making walking very difficult with pedestrians—it was a problem whether to try walking on the pavement at the risk of falling, or taking to the streets with the risk of being run down by automobiles, trucks and other vehicles. A warm rain in the afternoon removed most of the sleet, but yesterday rain, sleet and snow joined forces, making an ideal combination to look at from the cozy inside. Several accidents resulted from falls on the icy pavements, none of a serious nature.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

In the County Court before Judge Geo. Batterton, Jesse R. Letton and Reynolds Letton accepted the trust as executors of the estate of their mother, Mrs. Lucy F. Letton. They qualified by furnishing bond with W. D. McIntyre as surety.

A suit has been filed in the Bourbon Circuit Court by James McClure, administrator de bonis non with the will annexed, of W. W. Massie, deceased, against William K. Massie, of Lexington, and about thirty-five others, in which the plaintiff seeks to have the large landed estate left by W. W. Massie divided among the heirs of W. C. Massie, who died recently in Lexington. The petition alleges that the land is susceptible of division, and also seeks to have the personal property left by W. W. Massie in trust during the lifetime of W. C. Massie, divided among the heirs of W. W. Massie. The estate now comprises about 1,300 acres of fine Bourbon county land, four storehouses in Paris, and stocks and bonds amounting approximately to $75,000. A number of the heirs reside in Lexington and Millersburg. The matter will come to the attention of the court at the coming term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

In the County Court, Judge George Batterton dismissed the case against Erastus Snapp, who was charged with failing to provide for his fourteen-year-old daughter. The girl was given into custody of her uncle, Thomas McCord, and the father was ordered to pay $2.50 per week toward her support.

Embry Downey, of Paris, who was a few months ago adjudged to be of unsound mind, due to illness, was restored to citizenship by a jury. Mr. Downey has fully recovered from his illness.

BURLEY GROWERS ENDORSE COUNCIL

Tobacco Men Approve Agricultural Council Of Kentucky As Help In Marketing Crops.

MR. PASSONNEAU'S STATEMENT

LEXINGTON, KY., March 2.—The Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, in a statement given out by Col. Joseph Passonneau, Chief of the Field Service Division, endorses and recommends the newly formed Agricultural Council of Kentucky to any association of farmers who may be considering the formation of marketing associations of any kind. Col. Passonneau points to the fact that the council will serve farmers who ask its help without pay and that Judge Robert W. Bingham, who successfully led the movement to organize the Burley tobacco growers, is its chairman.

Col. Passonneau, speaking for the burley co-operative, urges all farmers who may be considering forming co-operative marketing movements to seek first the advice and assistance of the Agricultural Council as to the steps to be taken to organize the right kind of association to handle the particular product it may be desired to market.

The statement of Colonel Passonneau follows:

"Kentuckians who wish to see agriculture establish itself as not only the most important but the most successful industry of the State, should be interested in the newly formed Agricultural Council of Kentucky, whose purpose it is to assist the farmers in forming correct marketing associations for the sale of those agricultural products which should lend themselves to co-operative marketing.

"Agriculture is the basis of all industry. Unless the farmer is successful, business generally cannot prosper, but successful agriculture always reflects prosperity into every business activity.

"The Council, if given an opportunity, will fill a great need. It offers its services to all Kentuckians who are planning on a co-operative movement of any kind. It will make a study of any agricultural product and advise the growers of that product regarding the feasibility of marketing the product co-operatively, as well as instruct them as to the type of organization that should best fit the particular product to be marketed.

"The council serves without pay. Judge Robert W. Bingham, publisher of the Courier-Journal and Times at Louisville, and the man who was primarily responsible for the successful organization of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association is Chairman of the Council.

"Judge Bingham is interested first of all in success of farmers of Kentucky. He not only lent his influence, but gave his means to make the Burley Association a success. He was the prime factor that made possible the financing of the organization after it was formed.

"With Judge Bingham as chairman of the Agricultural Council we know that the services of that Council will always be genuine. We recommend, therefore, that all Kentuckians who are interested in starting a co-operative marketing movement of any kind, seek the advice and assistance of the Council as the first move in the formation of a co-operative."

There is Beauty.
Wherever snow falls or water flows or birds fly, wherever day and night meet in twilight, wherever the blue heaven is hung by clouds or sown with stars, wherever are outlets into celestial space, wherever is awe, and love—there is Beauty, plentiful as rain, shed for thee, and though thou shouldst walk the world over, thou shalt not be able to find a condition inopportune or ignoble.—Emerson.

Just Mental Broadening.
We don't believe the world is growing worse. We are merely adding to our facilities for finding out about its wickedness.

How Big Is "Great?"

IT'S easy to prattle about "great reductions"—and it's just as easy to let the customer make up the loss in padded prices later on.

IT'S part of the game to triumphantly point at a "wonderful delivery service"—and it's also part of the game to make the customer support it.

IT'S "grand" to be able to get "easy" credit—easy to get and hard to get away from. Easy to overbuy and hard to pay in a lump.

THE PIGGLY WIGGLY policy of standard low prices, no expensive delivery service, and cash only, is your safeguard as well as your convenience.

Opossums in New Zealand.

Opossums, which were introduced into New Zealand from Australia many years ago, have increased until they have become a pest in the fruit-growing regions. Nevertheless, their value for fur outweighs any damage they do. It is therefore proposed to give them every chance to breed in the forested regions.

Pin Oak Will Droop.

The pin oak in the fall has brilliant foliage and is especially desirable where a trunkless tree is wanted; that is, where it is desired to have the foliage extend from the ground to the top of the tree. The tendency of the limbs of the pin oak is to droop.—American Forestry Magazine.

Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Jasper, Minn. — "I saw in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it because I was having such pains in my stomach and through my back that I could not do my work. I had tried other medicines, but none did me the good that your Vegetable Compound did. Now I am able to do all my work alone while before I had my daughter staying at home to do it. I have told a number of friends what it has done for me and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial." — Mrs. JESSE PETERSEN, Route 1, Jasper, Minn.

There is no better reason for your trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound than this—it has helped other women. So if you suffer from displacements, irregularities, backache, nervousness or are passing through the Change of Life remember this splendid medicine. What it did for Mrs. Petersen it may do for you.

The Vegetable Compound stands upon a foundation of nearly fifty years of service.

SOUSA BAND COMING TO LEX- INGTON, MARCH 23

Miss Anna Chandler Goff, of the Lexington College of Music, has announced that John Phillip Sousa and his band will appear there in concerts at Woodland Auditorium, Thursday, March 23, matinee and night. The concerts were to have been given in the early fall, but owing to an accident from which Sousa has now recovered, the engagement was postponed.

No man in the world of music has had so extensively advertised a personality as Lieutenant-Commander John Phillip Sousa. He and his music have become famous in every part of the globe and he has long since become an American institution. It is no exaggeration to say that he is known as the greatest band man in history and his band is recognized as the leading body of instrumentalists in the world. Sousa and his band, numbering nearly 100 pieces, have done and are doing much to promote musical interests, for the present programs contain compositions which would never be heard in many localities if the celebrated leader and his men did not make it possible.

The Sousa concerts are not included in the Artist Concert Series, but reservations may be made now by calling telephone 639-X or writing Lexington College of Music.

CURRENT MARKET PRODUCE REVIEW

Receipts of butter appear to have been a little heavier than the consumptive demand, resulting in an easier tone and lower prices prevailing on butter at the close of the week.

The supply of live poultry also has been larger than could be absorbed, and prices have generally worked to a slightly lower basis, both in production and consuming markets.

There is a good demand for fresh eggs, but due to larger receipts, the market has a tendency to work lower as the supplies increase and until a storing basis is reached.
